

This month, the coffee-time concerts will be diversifying into something completely new.

For the very first time, the church is going to become a dance space, and we will welcome our own Luis Moore, along with his long-time dance partner, Martha Bixley, who is from Princes Risborough in a presentation entitled Trio. This will be a fabulous series of three dances of roughly ten minutes each.

We are so lucky to have such talent available locally and the chance to have these two local stars performing for us is just too good to miss.

Both Martha and Luis completed their professional dance training at the Academy of Music & Theatre Arts at Falmouth University, where they each gained a BA in dance and choreography. They first met and began dancing together at the Henry Floyd Grammar School in Aylesbury.

This will be something new for us and an event you will never forget.
