For June's Coffee-time Concert, we are featuring F.R.E. Violins, a group which brings together three leading Italian violinists to play a special arrangement of Vivaldi's Four Seasons, one of the most popular pieces in all of the classical repertoire.

Raffaele Pagano is already known to our audience; he has won first prize in over twenty competitions, has played for the Theatre San Carlo in Napoli, and has been the leader of many orchestras. He is also building a formidable reputation as a composer and has created this arrangement of the Vivaldi masterpiece.

Fabrizio Falasca is the assistant leader of the Philharmonia Orchestra in London, Leader of the Opera Theatre in Cagliari, and has been a guest leader of the London Symphony Orchestra and the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra.

Emanuele Bastanzetti was one of the most lauded students of his generation at the Royal Academy of Music and is currently co-leader of the Friuli Venezia Giulia Orchestra in Italy.

These three remarkably talented people will be providing us with yet another wonderful morning of music at Holy Trinity.
