

For our Coffee-Time Concert on the 29th of November, we are delighted to welcome two extraordinary artists.

Soprano, Stephanie Bodsworth studied at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland and the Royal College of Music. She has performed several times for Opera Holland Park and was a member of the Glyndebourne Chorus for three years, performing the role of Emmie in Sir Peter Hall's Albert Herring.

As well as touring extensively with Opera Brava, Stephanie has performed at the Proms with Glyndebourne Festival Chorus and made her international debut as Misha in the world premiere of The Carnival – A Circus Opera, in Hamburg. Since 2022 she has been the producer of Streatley Farmhouse Opera, developing opera in the Oxfordshire and Berkshire area.

On the concert platform she has performed as oratorio and concert soloist at venues such as Bath Abbey, Glasgow Cathedral, St Martin-in-the-Fields, St John Smith Square and Lambeth Palace.

Virtuoso pianist, composer for film and the concert stage, arranger and lecturer, Pavel Timofeyevsky has received numerous prizes and accolades, including the BBC/Guardian Young Composer of the Year award. Pavel has appeared at nearly all the major concert venues across the UK. Concert tours, along with television and radio appearances in other parts of the world include the USA, China, Canada, France, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Russia, Latvia, Greece, Cyprus and India.
